When Sofia and Adam explore an abandoned tornado shelter, they discover a mysterious key. When they use the key to open a locked door, they accidentally open a portal to another time: ancient Greece. But before they can figure out where they are or how they got there, Adam and Sofia are ambushed by ferocious Ancient Spartan soldiers and must run for their lives. After they escape, Adam and Sofia stumble across Hector, a boy their age who has been enslaved alongside his family by Spartan invaders. Hector agrees to help and leads Adam and Sofia to his family's home. As he does, the three must carefully dodge the menacing clank and clamor of bronze armor to avoid their Spartan pursuers. Find a Way Home After they arrive at Hector's home, they listen with bated breath as Hector's grandmother tells them the legend of a powerful Kronos key. Whoever wields this key, she says, is given the power to travel through time. That's it, Adam cries. That's the key we used back in the tornado shelter. The Kronos key is the only way Sofia and Adam can get home. But there's a problem: they don't have it anymore. They left the key in the door they unlocked back in 2018. They are heartbroken, but Hector's grandmother tells them all is not lost. The Kronos key is also in this time, hidden somewhere deep inside an ancient temple at the center of a nearby village. If they find it, they can use it to return home. The Quest for the Kronos Key Only one...
