Excerpt: April 8, 1920, the director general estimated that this would add $50,000,000 per annum to the pay roll. Following the reconsideration of General Order No. 27 as applying to the ship crafts, the Eailroad Administration took up the reconsideration of the clerical forces in all departments, miscellaneous office employees, such as janitors; elevator and switchboard operators; office, station, and warehouse watchmen; stationary engineers; firemen and power house oilers; locomotive boiler washers; power and transfer turntable operators; and common labor employed about the shops, roundhouses, storehouses, and warehouses. As a result of this reconsideration Supplement No. 7, dated September 1, 1918, was issued, effective from that date. This supplement provided that eight hours should constitute a day s work for all the classes of employees covered thereby; it also provided that, excepting where there were existing agreements or practices more favorable to the employees, overtime...
