FORGE, United States, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. A fresh voice in crime fiction. Fast, funny, heartbreaking and wise. Elouise Norton is the best new character you ll meet this year. --Lee Child Hall deserves to be compared to Kathy Reichs or Patricia Cornwell, and it will not be long before she is recognized as every bit as big a crime writing star. --Daily Mail (UK) Los Angeles Homicide Detective Elouise Norton encounters her toughest case yet in City of Saviors, the fourth installment in the critically acclaimed mystery series from author Rachel Howzell Hall. After a long Labor Day weekend, seventy-three-year-old Eugene Washington is found dead in his Leimert Park home. At first blush, his death seems unremarkable--heatwave combined with food poisoning from a holiday barbecue. But something in the way Washington died doesn t make sense. LAPD Homicide Detective Elouise Lou Norton is called to investigate the death and learns that the only family Washington had was the 6,000-member congregation of Blessed Mission Ministries, led by Bishop Solomon Tate. But something wicked is lurking among the congregants of this church. Lou s partner, Detective Colin Taggart, thinks her focus on the congregation comes from her distrust of organized religion. But Lou is convinced that the murderer is sitting in one of those red velvet pews--and that Bishop Tate may be protecting the wolf in the flock. Lou must force the truth into the light and confront her own demons in order to save another soul before it s too late. Hall has created a strong and likable African American detective who rivals Michael Connelly s Harry Bosch in grit, intelligence, and tenacity. --Library Journal (starred review).
