Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1878 edition. Excerpt: .what a host of bad thoughts I had in my heart until all this happened, but perhaps it is as well I should know what a wretch I am. Yes, knowing one is diseased is certainly one step towards cure, but then you must seek the Physician. I hardly know what to say to you at such a time as this, but I can and will pray for you more than ever, and for advice you must go to a better person. No one comforts me like you, you dear little thing, but perhaps I ought not to be comforted too much. At any rate you are quite right about my speaking to master; he was to have his last private talk with me to-morrow, but perhaps I had better tell him what I have been saying to you before. There is always a good opportunity on Sunday evening, for he generally has his supper alone, being very tired. I always take it in to him, and he often talks to me a little, so if he does not seem too much done up I will speak to him to-night. They did not dwell longer on this painful subject, but spoke of other things, and six o'clock soon came--the time when, on Sunday, Harry had to leave. Ruth lay still for some time after his departure with her eyes closed, meditating most painfully on what he had been saying. That after looking so...
