Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.More self-help than political commentary, Embracing patriotism as a force able to maintain the ideology of Americanism, able to unite a movement to reclaim our government, focused on informing and motivating true citizens young and old to vote and too protect the vote in 2016. If you love your nation and want to protect your personal future, stop the madness and begin to reclaim your government, read this book and share it with others. No fluff. No hype. Get involved and do something about it! Embrace patriotism and the heritage of America. Unite to maintain the integrity of the electoral system. Motivate the young, the disillusioned and the apathetic. Stop the Transformation of your nation. The Millennials Guide to Saving the World, as the title implies, is intended as a point of reference. A guide for use when speaking with others about maintaining the values that define our nation and related issues facing the American people as we approach the elections in 2016. One part of the message is about the need to unite under one banner, one cause, to join in the fight to preserve our sovereignty and maintain the American Dream. Other topics speak of faith, motivation and keeping one s self-respect by protecting what is rightfully yours; with human nature and the will to survive. It promotes a continuation of the freedoms, opportunities and the ideology of America through a common bond; a bond established by an individual s perception of good and bad. Saving the world begins at home. It starts with the individual and the realization that a revitalized America can improve your quality of life and that a restored America has the ability to...
