Xlibris Corporation. Paperback. Condition: New. 78 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.3in. x 0.3in. Six inches below my collar bone, on the left side a tiny pump started working a little over eight months before I first saw the light of day. Arriving on Planet Earth a short time later, without a stitch of clothing, I took a deep breath and started out with a cry. Long before I could read or write, and even before I realized, I started recording the storybook of my life, as everyone records the story of his or her life. Our book of life is not composed of written words and spoken sounds, limited by vocabulary, but by many variable components such as attitudes, disposition, personality and conduct. This causes life to be like a video, viewed by everyone, and endures as indelible memories that people remember us by ---whether we like it or not. We are, after all, complex pneumatic creatures, gifted with a priceless, personal mind of our own with which we evaluate information and in which we store our opinions. This is the truth, and it is the way our Heavenly Father created us to be. That is why we are commonly called creatures. It is also true that my conclusions form my opinions, that guide my life, and so do yours. So welcome to my heart! Come right in and make yourself at home. Amble around and kick a few tires of my ideas (like you are shopping for a new car) and see if you find anything of interest. Help yourself to anything you like! This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
