Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 202 x 128 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Neurotic, excitable, unpredictable, potentially dangerous - and that s just the police officers! Drunk drivers, feral children, drug barons, violent prisoners, dying junkies, wild gypsies, gun-toting gangsters, angry taxpayers, budget cuts and delusional senior officers - PC Surname and the rest of A Shift do battle against them all. Jump in for a ride along as they go about their everyday jobs, fighting crime and protecting the public in this hilariously accurate portrayal of modern policing! The poorest area of the township we patrol is without doubt the Chavington Manor Estate on the east side of town - home to a hard-working, honest majority; as well as some of the worst examples of humanity society has to offer. It is the start of a Late shift and I am sent to the estate to investigate complaints from local residence of that most heinous of crimes in progress - knock down ginger. After just a few minutes of searching I find a gaggle of youths matching the description passed. Hello kids, how are we today? I open with. The...
