Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Back when he played pro football Steve Ritter used to be a Big Deal. Kind of. After he retired, though, Steve took a turn down the road of intemperance and became a Big Deal again for all the wrong reasons. Now he's back in his hometown of Cairo, New York, looking for asylum after nuking both his marriage and radio job with unforgettable panache. Trying to get his life, and sanity, squared away isn't easy. The public humiliation and attention of his meltdown has left Steve jaded. The memories of the Cairo he abandoned after high school aren't pleasant. Some relationships can be mended, others are beyond saving, but the ache of lost love hasn't dulled over the two decades he's been gone. When his old teammate and friend Tommy Gray, Cairo's varsity football coach, appeals for Steve's help with his squad of losers, he begrudgingly accepts. Steve doesn't know squat about coaching and senses the boys, and their parents, are waiting for his next slip-up. And then there's Natalie, another of Tommy's bright ideas. He's determined to make it all work but darn if his mind doesn't want to cooperate. Wet brain or dry brain, Steve's brain is busted, disgusted and can't be trusted. Will he drop this Hail Mary or will he catch it?.
