

Dear Anais: My Life in Poems for You (Paperback)

By Diana M Raab

Plain View Press, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Diana M. Raab's Dear Anais: My Life in Poems for You is not only a tribute to the late diarist, but also a tribute to diaries themselves. Each of the book's poems, culled from Raab's own journal, offers intimate portraits, tiny memoirs in verse. Raab's poetry is seductive in its earnestness, appealing in its vulnerability, mystery, and enchantment. Denise Duhamel, poet, author of Two and Two and Queen for a Day: Selected and New Poems Raab's skill as a poet, but her passages are as intimate as a diary. She reconstructs her past mirroring Nin's emotional honesty. The reader never feels voyeuristic reading the intimate passages, but feels like a confidant, friend and maybe even a lover. Steve Reigns, Nin scholar, poet, and editor of My Life is Poetry In Diana Raab's imaginary world. people drip with stories / and linger in bookstores and cafes / slurping foamy cappuccinos / and nibbling chocolate cake. And the poems in Dear Anais are, indeed, rife with both stories and the extravagantly various things of this world: Laundromats and...
