GO VIA LOS ANGELES TO THE EXPQSITIONS The suns of August scorch the yellow grain, And pale, the hills are wrapped in whiten d haze; Like islands float the groves above the plain, From skies unclouded comes the lambent blaze; The roads are blinding in the floods of light, The suns are followed with the burning moons, Each day but dies to bring as rich a night, And at the dawning night in languor swoons. The far earth-rim that with the haze is cross d, This glowing landscape that is lying near, One seems my life within the vanish d past, The other as...
