Excerpt from The Essex Lad Who Became England's Greatest Preacher: The Life of Charles Haddon Spurgeon, for Young People The chief aim of writing and reading this book is to help young boys and girls to become as nearly like this Essex boy in spirit and life as can be. What he was or did sprang from his inner being, as a most godly disci ple of our Lord Jesus Christ. His very heart and soul found their life not in his creed, but in his love to Jesus and in cheerfully doing what his Master bade him to do. His hand was constantly blessing some one because he loved all men, so that love with him was life. Above all things else he prayed to be as exact a copy of Christ as he could be, both as a personal Christian and a preacher of the gospel. Thus, taking Christ as his only model, his faith, his hope, and his love were bright, tender, and lively, and made all his outer life real and earnest. True work in the cause of...
