The Nation has made measurable strides toward improving preparedness for the full range of hazards at all levels of government and across all segments of society. National preparedness has improved not only for the countless threats posed by those who wish to bring harm to the American homeland but also for the many natural and technological hazards that face the Nations communities. Presidential Policy Directive 8: National Preparedness (PPD-8) describes the Nations approach to preparing for the threats and hazards that pose the greatest risk to the security of the United States. The Directive requires a National Preparedness Report (NPR), an annual report summarizing the progress made toward building, sustaining, and delivering the 31 core capabilities described in the National Preparedness Goal (the Goal). As the NPR coordinator, the U. S. Department of Homeland Securitys (DHSs) Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) worked with the full range of whole community partners including all levels of government, private and nonprofit sectors, faith-based organizations, communities, and individualsto develop the NPR. Specifically, FEMA collaborated with federal interagency partners to identify quantitative and qualitative...
