The woman on the street has a gift. The man in prison has a gift. We all have gifts that were placed in us when we were born. However, as much as it is good to know you have a gift, it is much more important to find out how that gift can be developed and put to use in your life and in your world. They could be skills developed in a trade such as automobiles, construction, welding, woodworking, crocheting, knitting and hairdressing. You could have an excellent fashion sense. They could be communication skills (writing, teaching, speaking, coaching, training). They could be sales and marketing skills (which you need to effectively run a business). In this age of information technology, do you have proficient computer skills? (Web designing, info design, web marketing, media designing, a SEO specialty?)...
