Problems in Woodwork (Classic Reprint) (Hardback)

By Edward Francis Worst

Forgotten Books, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from Problems in Woodwork His manual is designed as a guide to manual training teachers who believe that the object of education is the development of the child morally and mentally rather than the acquisition of skill, which so often is made the dominant feature in manual training. Not that the training to acquire skill should be neglected, but it should not be fostered at the expense of the child's broad understanding of nature and nature's laws. No set of models can express the manual training idea, nor can any definite course of work be applicable to all the diverse conditions to be met with in one city, or even in one school; consequently, the exercises are arranged merely as a basis from which to work. The fact that a variety of materials is used aids in bringing the work into closer relation with that of the grade teacher. This relationship tends to instill life into the work of the shop, which should be considered as a school laboratory where the work of the classroom is...
