Krabbe Publishing, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Confessions of an Expat is a script about the men and women who travel to Asia to see the world, all courtesy of their native language English which allows them jobs in private institutes and the ability to shape/warp young minds. From the airport arrival to beer-soaked nights, hangover days and the ever present feeling of being a fish out of water. Filled with kind-hearted teachers, spoiled students, horny housewives, drunken wretches, immigration officials, prostitutes and gangsters, Confessions of an Expat is as close to the experience of living and teaching overseas that you will come without actually getting on the plane.
