Improvement Era, Vol. 3: June, 1900 (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Joseph F Smith

Forgotten Books, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Improvement Era, Vol. 3: June, 1900 This statement is an heirloom passed from the older to the younger doubters, and accepted by many of the latter as an eternal truth, which needs no further investigation. It is true that, in the beginnings of science, no faith seems to be required; for every statement is based on experiments and observations that may be repeated by every student. It is further true that nothing in science is taken on trust; that, however, does not imply that faith, according to Joseph Smith's definition, is unnecessary. To one who understands true theology, natural science is but a part Of the greater science of God; and it does not seem reasonable that the fundamental law of the whole should not also be a governing element of the part. That is, if faith is essential in theology, it should be necessary, also, in natural science, especially in its higher forms. This reasoning may be sufficient to the believer; but to the unbeliever it is valueless. The doubter can be convinced only by an examination...
