Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Citizen and the Republic: A Text-Book in Government This volume is intended as a text-book for use in courses in Civil Government in secondary schools. It should follow, or accompany, a high school course in American History. It is an attempt to answer the demand for that which is needful and important in the new civics sometimes called community civics, and at the same time to hold fast to that which is good in the old. In introducing an educational reform there is always danger of over-emphasis; there is danger that we may not have a good thing without having too much of it. The authors of this volume, while emphasizing community civics and the moral purposes in teaching government, have sought to avoid a one-sided course. They believe that the schools should study the community and such new civics as the changing times call for, and especially that they should give attention to current history and present-day problems of democracy; but it is equally important not to neglect certain aspects of the old...
