Because I Have a Voice: Queer Politics in India

By Arvind Narrain and Gautam Bhan (eds)

Yoda Press, New Delhi, India. Paperback. Book Condition: New. First Edition. In times when the issue of queer sexuality, and gay, lesbian and other sexual identities are becoming increasingly a part of our mainstream popular representation, as is clear from films like Kal Ho Na Ho and Girlfriend , not to mention Fire , this outstanding collection of contributions puts forth the first ever testimonial of the gay and lesbian community in India. The story of queer people in India has, so far, been written and lived along the fault lines and margins of Indian history, but now the search for another moment of assertion is gaining momentum, and this anthology represents precisely that moment. The essays in this volume are a celebration, a defiant political resistance, and introspective reflection and a conceptual space. They talk of the past, present and future of queer lives, and share stories of pain, joy, struggle and victory in equal measure. They are the voice of a community that refuses to be silenced. Complemented by an illustrated documentation section, this unique anthology will be of great interest to students and scholars of gender studies, sexuality studies, and sociology, NGOs and voluntary organizations working with...
