Mary Ming Creations. Paperback. Condition: New. 410 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. The Adventures of a Chinese Korean Orphan: A Mystical Thriller Marys memoir starts out telling of her physical life, but it is not too long before it she explains of her mystical spiritual journey and experience. Before Marys Spiritual Master dies, He appoints a successor. The successor recognizes Marys true identity in the Spiritual Realms. The successor and legions of negative forces deploy every means to keep Mary from coming to her own awareness. The Adventures of a Chinese Korean Orphan: A Mystical Thriller describes how Positive Powers use the conduit Mary to express their insights, and manifest their vision of reality on Earth. Mary is saved from death by them. The reader will come to understand and be inspired about their own true identity. Marys life is unusual right from the beginning years as she experiences at the young age of two or three of being trapped in her body and vows to herself that this life would be her last being confined to a physical body. Marys first Spiritual experience or vision was at the age of 4 or 5, a vision which she never forgot and what it meant. She experienced devastating loneliness when her mother left her at Angella Orphanage in 1964. Even after she was adopted and brought to America and there was plenty of food, clothes and a warm shelter, Mary could not take life at face value. She was compelled to know why she existed and what was the true meaning of life. As a teenager, after much seeking, she found a Spiritual Path that promised all the answers if she would attend to the disciplines and devote herself wholeheartedly with faith to the Spiritual Master. She had wonderful and...
