Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report of the Select Committee, in Obedience to a Resolution of the House, in Reference to the Defense of Craney Island in This State, When Attacked by the British Forces on the 22d of June, 1813 Express succeeds express, and despatch comes after despatch, in such quick succession, that if we put down every thing that interests us for the moment, we shall not have room enough for the record. And on the 16th of July of the same year, an able and eloquent writer in the Enquirer complains, in strong and pointed terms, of the indifference with which the most dazzling victories achieved on land were received by the public mind, compared with the exulting throb of joy which animated every heart at the most trivial triumph on the water. Our heads, he says, are all turned towards the ocean, as the only field of fame, and as the only theatre where the honour of the country can be upheld and the glory of our ancestors sustained. An account of the most daring enterprise upon land is scarcely read, particularly if we hear of an engagement between two frigates at the same time. Why this partiality in the public favour? Why not exult at a victory on land with as much enthusiasm as if it were gained on the ocean? Our legislative assemblies seem also to have caught this partiality, and to have viewed the deeds of the ocean warriors as alone worthy of their approbation. At the last session of the Virginia legislature, seven resolutions passed that body, complimenting in the highest terms seven of our young midshipmen, who had participated in the...
