Excerpt from Annual Report of the Receipts and Expenditures of the Town of Rochester: Together With the Report of the School Board, for the Fiscal Year Ending March 1, 1891, and the Vital Statistics for the Year Ending Dec; 31, 1890 The highways and streets had been sadly neglected for two years previous, so that a large amount was required to get them even into passible shape. The main street need not be referred to as to its muddy condition in 1889, yet as repairs were made upon it, this all seemed to have been forgotten, but none of this work can be done without expense. This repair was done with concrete, for the reason that it could be done at less than one-third of the expense of macadamizing or paving, and as the streets must necessarily be cut up for sewerage before long, we deemed this course the best. As to the economy of still keeping up the highway district system of repairing roads, we can only say, so long as it is done by the town, the bills will be large, and no fair show for the money. No board of select men can overcome this, and as proof of this we can only refer to the amount of money spent in several districts, and in some of them ignoring anything said by the selectmen, and in several cases the selectmen had no notice that the amount was overdrawn, until the work had been done. If good and efficient work was given in return, the matter would not appear so ridiculous. The matter of good and economic road building seems to be a lost art, and few...
