Brand New Book  Print on Demand .From the PREFACE THE art of speaking and understanding, reading and writing a foreign language is a subject which, commends itself to most young people. Perhaps I am not wrong in estimating that there is scarcely a man engaged in commerce who has not at one time or another most earnestly coveted the ability to speak with foreigners in their own language. Apart altogether from the commercial value of such a power, for a power it certainly is, there is a strong fascination about the subject, and it is a fascination which never vanishes; there is a sense of novelty in giving expression to our own familiar thoughts in words and phrases that are foreign and new to us; and to the young especially there is a charm in the distinction of being able to express himself in a foreign tongue, he feels head and shoulders above his fellows and proud of his knowledge. In ordinary studies a scholar who gains a certificate may be more clever than his fellow students who do not gain a certificate, or it may be that he is only more lucky, and in any case the difference in the amount of knowledge possessed by a scholar who gains a prize and by one who does not, may not be very great. But in the case of one who has mastered a foreign tongue, as soon as he opens his mouth the superiority of his attainments is proclaimed, and those who have not the like knowledge feel very small before him. Honour and distinction are more cheaply bought or attained to by a knowledge of foreign languages than by any other way. Another...
