Ever wonder why things in your Christian life just do not seem to be happening the way you want them to? Or has your heartfelt plea ever been, Oh God, where am I? Check with God to see where you are in His school of maturity for you. We all want to know God s will for ourselves and where we are headed. II Peter chapter one starts with faith and adds the steps of Christian maturity until love is reached. This is a rough outline of our curriculum of spiritual growth. Many times we start with the Lord, fired with zeal and spread the Word wherever we go. The young Christian can lack wisdom on how to apply the Word they know. We can indeed be a Little Nut for the Lord until He can mature us in Him. An acorn begins life as a little nut and grows into a mighty oak. In the same fashion, we can allow the Seed of the Word in our heart to sprout, branch out in every aspect of our life, and bring forth fruit until we become a tree of Life for those around us. Every Christian can find themselves and their church in Peter s add-to list of maturity. This helps our understanding of where and why we are in the kingdom of God. To find our place in Christ is a desire of every Christian. This book shows the direction of our walk with Him.
