HARTFORD: AN EPIC POEM (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Hartford: An Epic Poem Fairly and fully with adequate strength and perfection of language. Driven at length to abandon all hopes of their ever returning, They had resolved to attempt to pass over the perilous Ocean, And to create for themselves in American wilds a new England Where they might worship in freedom and safety the God of their Fathers. Great tribulations they suffered; and perils unnum bered pursued them; But they were over the ocean at last, and had built for themselves homes, Humble, but precious and cheerful, at Plymouth, and Salem, and Boston. Others arrived; and the Settlements grew with a vigor surprising. Boston at length was o ercrowded, - em barrassed al ready with numbers, So that a part of the people selected another location Where there was room for all comers, and christened the settlement Newtown. Over the Church that was formed in the Colony there we behold now Hooker, the servant of God, and the faithful instructor of young men. England the home of his earlier days, and his native place Marfield, Holland the scene of his labor in years of his weari some exile Then with his people to Boston he came, and sojourned for a time there Ere they determined to form a new settlement over the river. He was a man of intelligence, prudence, and skill in devising Measures to benefit every class of his friends and his neighbors.
