

Redeeming Marketplace Medicine (Paperback)

By Abigail Rian Evans

Wipf Stock Publishers, United States, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This book will be an invaluable resource for all Christians who are concerned about implementing a holistic ministry of healing and wholeness in the spirit of the Great Physician. It is must reading for those in health care professions (usually sickness care), and those in chaplaincies and other ministries focusing on healing and wholeness including pastoral counseling. It will guide those who believe, as do I, that the health care crisis creates unprecedented opportunities for congregations to be major providers of preventative health care education that is so desperately needed in our society with its multiple levels of personal and social pathology and brokenness. --Howard Clinebell, author of Anchoring Your Well Being: Christian Wholeness in a Fractured World and Ecotherapy: Healing Ourselves, Healing the Earth Advocates of the free market system often celebrate it as a mechanism, unabashedly driven by self-interest, that lets us exchange goods without the need for redemption. However, Dr. Abigail Evans calls for redeeming the marketplace in the delivery of the fundamental good of healthcare. Why? Healing is more important than treating diseases; health care more...
