McDonald Publishing, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. It seems we are surrounded by successful people everywhere these days and the majority of them make it look so easy. It's hard to imagine that people can make a living from posting memes on a Facebook page or sharing pictures of their butt at various angles on Instagram. How are some people more successful than others? Why do some make more money? Is it possible to achieve success when sometimes I can't even find my socks in the morning? It all comes down to self-discipline - the catalyst to making your dreams a reality. You probably know that everything worth pursuing involves hard work. Hard work takes time and most people give up before seeing any progress. But not you! You are not those people! You are a badass that won't give up easily, and are ready for getting down instead of giving up. This book is written for you--the badass in dire need of realistic and practical ways to build and maintain self-discipline. My aim for this book is to wake up the badass within you, so you can achieve any dreams you desire in life. Whether learning to be more frugal with your money, giving up a troublesome vice or addiction, climbing Mount Everest, or remembering you're vegan on a drunken night out just in time to avoid the temptation of a delicious kebab--with the right mindset, strategy, and system, you can make your goals attainable. In this book you will learn about: The key secrets of self-discipline: why some people have success, and most do not? It all comes down to a few vital points you will learn in this book. No more daydreaming: learn...
