Blazevox Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 222 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Poetry. "By investigating the minutiae of lifethe stuff that anchors us, a stone and its echo, paradoxes constructed by languageRuth Danon investigates nothing short of Thanatos and Eros. The journey of the LIMITLESS TINY BOAT is fierce and fearless. Watch out! These poems expand and contractbreathes they are read. A substantial achievement."Martine Bellen "Ruth Danon seems to gather all of life into her LIMITLESS TINY BOATor to explore every corner, every inch of the limitless, tiny boat that is life. In these flawlessly sculpted, deeply considered and compelling poems, Danon probes the machinery of lifehow it sputters, hums along, gets stuck, stops, then restarts, hums along again. She shows how we must reckon with the terrors and consolations of the physical world, make an existential tally, and move on. Words are / the only boat I have, she writes. And then, Really the trick is to estimate / from here, the journey outward. This book is a beautiful reckoning, an astute tallying, and a profound journey through the dark and bright corridors that make up a life."Laura Sims "I've been reading Ruth Danon s poetry for many years, always with pleasure. She is one of the most honest and affecting poets on the current scene, a writer more than willing to take deep emotional risks, bringing the reader close the flame. She says she is lucky knowing / that everything tends / to a particular moment in her latest collection. I suspect that much of her work as a poet has tended toward the moments gathered in LIMITLESS TINY BOAT. It s important work, and Danon takes us far beyond the fringes of thought and feeling."Jay Parini "Like any passageway...
