

Believing Again (Paperback)

By Rebecca Barber

Limitless Publishing, LLC, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . After his life falls apart, Nate Mitchell climbs onto his motorcycle and tries to outrun his pain. Nate leaves behind the noise and chaos of Sydney and accepts a teaching job in a quiet country town. Every afternoon after work, he throws himself into renovations on his old, rundown house until he s too exhausted to remember. Josie Perry needs a sign-something to restore her hope. Abandoned by her baby s father and disowned by her parents, Josie is now dealing with life as a single mother. She loves being a mum, but she needs something more.like a chance to have a conversation in full sentences with someone who knows how to wipe their own nose. In an effort to rebuild her life, she takes a waitress job at the local club. That s where she meets Nate.who might provide a little bit more adult interaction than she was looking for. The possibility of hope is more than they can ignore. Even Nate and Josie s friends notice their attraction, and they scheme to get the couple together. But they find reminders...
