There is a sense of urgency in which God wants to bring to the congregation s attention that God is aware of the problems plaguing today s church. False prophets are in the pulpits, in control of church finances, stifling the teaching of the Holy Bible s doctrine, and He is clearly aware of how the saints are being misled to believe you must give a finical amount for him to move on their behalf. The scriptures are being taking out of context for their greed and personal gain. The author speaks directly to the false prophets, it is important to confront them about their attitudes, and behaviors, their self-centered lifestyles and choices which have cause them to take advantage of others for their fleshly needs. The Holy Bible speaks about the false prophets repeatedly giving warning of their manipulation tactics. How they will misuse the Holy word of God to lure the saints to believe they are true prophets. Throughout the course of the book, the author challenges them to repent, confess, and turn their lives around. The Holy Bible gives us guidance on how we are to live and how God will hold man accountable for their part in corrupting the church. Also those who follow under the leadership of the false prophet will be held accountable as well for supporting their ministry. The time is drawing near and God is allowing man an opportunity to repent and change from their wicked ways. Warning comes before destruction, for some this will be their last chance to convert over to the Lord side. The church should be about God s business and remember a true prophet has integrity, pure heart and is..
