Virtualbookworm.com Publishing, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Jean Bell is a retired computer science professor, a potter, and a poet. She lives on the ranch her husband s family homesteaded on Blue Creek in the mountains near Evergreen, Colorado. Place is significant in her poems because many of them reflect sights and sounds around her home - cold winters, the old red barn, chickadees at the birdfeeder. Home is also the theme for many poems about people in her life: an afternoon nap with her young grandson, a walk in the woods with her husband. Written over a period of a dozen years, the poems in this book offer glimpses of life, and death, at home on Blue Creek.
